DREAMER CHRIS IN HORROR FORECAST

THE HORRORS that hit Britain at the weekend did not surprise former TV repairman Chris. For he claims that he had already seen them taking place — in his DREAMS.

Chris, 39, gave up his old job a year ago to devote all his time to studying his dreams of death and destruction ... and to warn people about them.

And yesterday he claimed that as he slept he foresaw the terrible events of the past few days. His clairvoyant insight showed him:

● The BOMB planted by Animal Rights fanatics in a car in Bristol which injured baby John Cupper.

● The PILOT who was sucked out of a plane window.

● And the PARTY of teenagers in Saturday's 21st birthday bash at the Honourable Artillery Company headquarters in London.

In fact, he was so certain about the Bristol car bombing that he says he sent the police a map on Friday indicating where it would take place.

Chris lives in a caravan in Bedfordshire with his waitress wife Bessie. He said yesterday: "Before I go to sleep, I leave a piece of paper with a question on it by my bed and pray for an answer.

"And in the morning, I find I've written up to four pages of notes in my sleep.

"The notes are full of cryptic clues about major disasters which I have to interpret. But I'm getting better and better at it."

One of his police acquaintances, a detective inspector, said: "He can give an area where something will happen.
